

A WEEK IN SOCIETY.

How Norfolk People Enjoyed the First Week in February.

Many Pleasant Events Crowded into a Few Days—An Enjoyable Card Party—A Delightful Dinner Party—Future Entertainments Announced—Entertained at Tea—An "At Home"—A German—Married Ladies' Euchre Club—Personal.

For the first week in February the past seven days have not been marked by the wild rush of gaiety that should characterize these last days of the "season." Somehow the machinery is not whirling with the force that generally keeps it going so fast and furious in the few weeks prior to Ash Wednesday and the beginning of Lent. Yes, it is almost here. Only two weeks more will find us giving up the world, the flesh and the devil. For forty long days we will devote ourselves to things of a more spiritual nature. While this season has been a very delightful one and lots of pleasure was to be had, yet very few large private functions have been given, and the amount of entertaining has not been quite up to the standard.

One of the prettiest and most enjoyable card parties of the season was given Wednesday afternoon by the Misses Myers at their home, on Bute street, in honor of Miss Daisy Burwell, of New York. The parlors were most tastefully decorated with palms and potted plants, while in all the cosy alcoves stood lamps and candelabra, the soft lights from which gave the rooms a most picturesque appearance. For about two hours the guests were thoroughly absorbed in the ever fascinating game of progressive euchre, the score being kept on attractive cards of green, tied with dainty pink ribbons. Miss Burwell receiving the greatest number of stars was awarded the first prize, a gauze fan, while Miss Mary Reid, cutting the highest card in the deck, carried home a pretty belt as the consolation, and Miss Borden received a souvenir cup and saucer as a trophy prize.

After much merriment over the awarding of prizes refreshments of a most tempting nature were served on the card tables. The guests on this occasion were: Mrs. Robert Voight, Mrs. Walter Taylor, Mrs. John Wingfield, Mrs. Martin Greenwood, Mrs. Victor Parks, Mrs. Murray, Mrs. E. B. Lodge, Miss Burwell, Miss Simcoe, Miss Borden, of Winston, N. C.; Miss Letta Serpell, Misses Hamilton and Mary McCarrick, Miss Mary Reid, Miss Pollard, of Richmond, and Miss Parr, of Bedford City.

One of the prettiest and most delightful affairs of the season was the dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parker Breese in honor of the first anniversary of their marriage. The affair took place Thursday evening in one of the pretty little private dining-rooms of the Monticello Hotel. The decorations were pink, an enormous bowl of pink carnations and ferns forming the center piece. The dinner cards were decorated with tinted Gibson heads and tied with pink ribbons. Covers were laid for fourteen and an elaborate menu discussed. Those who accepted Mr. and Mrs. Breese's hospitality on this occasion were: Miss Helen Ballou, of Providence, R. I.; Miss Virginia Wrenn, Miss Mary Williams, Miss Mary Nash, Miss Alice Moore, Mr. W. W. Sale, Mr. Aaron Milhoad, Mr. A. Brooke Taylor, Mr. Casey B. Morgan, U. S. N.; Mr. James McCall, and Mr. William Hopkins, U. S. N.

Miss Emily Allyn will entertain the members of her card club Monday evening at her home, on Bute street. This promises to be an enjoyable occasion for those who will be present.

Another event of importance which will take place this week will be the German at the Chamberlin Tuesday evening. These dances have won such a reputation for themselves that it is useless to say anything in their behalf.

Monday evening Mrs. Tessier, of Boston, entertained a party most delightfully. The occasion was a theatre party to witness the superb production of "The Musketeers," by Mr. James O'Neill and his excellent company. The party occupied one of the boxes at the Academy, and after enjoying the play, repaired to the home of Miss Freeman, where a delectable supper awaited them. Those who comprised this party were: Mrs. Tessier, Mrs. C. R. Emerich, Miss Elizabeth Freeman, Mr. Kenzie Johns and Mr. Harry Keeling.

The Misses Reed entertained a number of their friends most charmingly Tuesday afternoon at their home on York street. The occasion was a tea and was given in honor of their guests, Mrs. Zell, of Baltimore, and Miss Sue Tunstall, of Washington. The parlors and dining room had been tastefully decorated for the event. Palms abounded in profusion, and pink and white carnations were much in evidence, lending their beauty and fragrance to the scene. In the dining room pink ribbons and candelabra, with the shades of the same tint, added to the general effect, which was good. Miss Lula Reed, assisted by Mrs. Zell, Miss Tunstall and Mrs. Schieb, received the guests, who called from 5 until 7 o'clock. Mrs. Reed presided at the punch bowl, while Miss Mary Belle White, Miss Ruby Reed and Miss Kyle Reed dispensed the refreshments.

Among the guests were Mr. Charles Parker Bruse, Mrs. Everett St. John, Mrs. Jas. F. Cecil, Mrs. Clinton K. Curtis, Mrs. John H. Wingfield, Mrs. A. P. Wilmer, Mrs. William H. White, Mrs. Fergus Reid, Mrs. George Reed, Mrs. Thomas J. Randolph, Mrs. Floyd Hughes, Mrs. Geoffrey Morgan, Miss Liddle Lane, of Auburn, Ala.; Miss Marie Meade, of Richmond; Misses Lula and Daisy Brooks, of West Point, Va.; Miss Nan Kensett, of Eastville; Miss Katherine Farnsworth, of Orange, N. J.; Miss Sadie White, of Abingdon; Miss Rebecca Nash and Miss Margaret Reed, of Portsmouth; Miss Elizabeth Conrad, of Winchester; Miss Florence Milligan, of navy yard; Miss Mary Paterson, of Petersburg; Misses Mary and Mabel Chamberlaine, Miss Patti Gregory, Misses Eleanor and Frances Randolph, Miss Elizabeth Tunstall, Misses Anna and Jean Thomas, Miss Nellie Mason, Misses Mary and Alice Cohn, Miss Alice Moore, Miss Elizabeth Taylor, Miss Katherine Heath, Miss Ruth Perce, Misses Elizabeth and Mary Nash, Misses Daisy and Lou Browne, Misses Louisa and Fannie Wilson, Miss Mary Paul Mael, Miss Rosa Perkins, Miss Mattie Johnston, Miss Elizabeth Johnston, Misses Emily and Mabel Allyn, Miss Maria Tucker, Miss Elizabeth Martin, Miss Nellie Little, Miss Elizabeth Bowdoin, Miss Edith Tunis, Miss Alice Ramey and Miss Emily Wilson.

With the exception of the Easter dance, the German which will be given by the Senior German Club Friday evening will be the last. This cotillion

We Strongly Urge Early Buying, Because:

The time is here; you must have Spring and Summer Clothing; you cannot but lose money by putting off your purchases. For years prices of all commodities kept falling, falling. But things have changed during the past year, and everything is steadily advancing in price, some 10 per cent., some 25 per cent. and 50 per cent.; yes, we know of certain articles which have absolutely doubled in price. Our buyers were shrewd and placed orders early, thereby getting many a pick-up at the old prices.

We desire to call special attention to our Magnificent Stock of Silks, Dress Goods, Wash Goods, White Goods, Linens, Laces, Embroideries, Infants' and Ladies' Muslin Underwear and Household Supplies. A visit to "Norfolk's Busy Store," where these things are sold, will convince that what we say is right.

New Spring Dress Goods.

The beautiful effects in New Spring Dress Goods, harmonious colorings, rich and dignified in each piece or pattern, produce a combination of elegance that wins admiration of all lovers of handsome textures. Prices based upon contracts made with the importer and manufacturer before the great advance.

will be an event of importance, and also of great relief to many. No more bids to worry over and wonder would they be forthcoming. Eastern gayeties are an after thought, as it were, and then there are the six weeks of Lent in which to make engagements.

Mrs. Ferree and the Misses Ferree were "at home" to their friends Friday afternoon in a charming manner. The Misses Ferree have as their guests Miss Mattie Pace, of Raleigh, and Miss Nancy Clarke, of Tarboro, N. C., and invited their friends to their home at the Naval Hospital, on that occasion to meet them. In the parlor, where the receiving party stood, the decorations were very effective, being composed of numberless potted plants, palms and ferns and red flowers. The invitations were from 4 until 7 o'clock, and during that time over a hundred guests called to partake of the charing hospitality of the hostesses. Miss Ruth Ferree, Miss Clark, Miss Pace and Miss Mary Ferree received. In the dining room the decorations were pink, pink carnations and pink shades giving the touch of color needed. Miss Marjonne Meade, of Richmond, dispensed the lemonade. Mrs. Gates, of the Naval Hospital, presided over the coffee, while the refreshments were served by Miss Mary Chamberlaine, Miss Emily Allyn, Miss Mabel Allyn, of Norfolk, and Miss Margaret Reed, of Portsmouth.

The German given Thursday evening by the Portsmouth Cotillion Club was a great success, and a most delightful evening was spent by all who were present. The Naval Post Band played their sweetest for the dancers, and to its strains Mr. J. Ridgley Porter led the couples through marches and circles forming the pretty figures of the German, dancing lasted until 10 o'clock, when the pleasant evening came to a close and good nights were said. Those who acted as chaperones this evening were: Mrs. J. Whit Ashton, Mrs. Chas. T. Parrish, Mrs. O. E. Smith and Mrs. F. P. Nash. The dancers at this German were: Misses Sophia and Edna Smith, of Brooklyn; Miss Mary Ferree, of the Naval Hospital; Miss Sue Marshall, of Raleigh; Miss Virginia Wilson, of Brooklyn; Miss Tilney and Miss Brett, of Orange, N. Miss Elizabeth Winn entertained the Card Club Wednesday evening in a delightful manner at her home on Duke street. Progressive euchre was the game played, and after the scores had been counted it was found that Mrs. Walke had won the greatest number of punches, and was awarded the ladies' prize, a china plate, while to Mr. Loyall was given the gentlemen's prize, a Gibson picture. Dainty refreshments were then served on the card tables. Wash Fabrics Welcome.

The pleasantest word of the year we have to speak today—New Wash Goods. There are Silks richer, Woolens of greater worth and stately grace, but there is charming daintiness, and exquisite delicacy to Cotton weavings, as we know how to make them today, which wins our hearts. Perhaps it is because they hint of Spring time, with birds and flowers, or that they are newer. We are only learning the possibilities in weaving and printing Cotton. The designers of Silks and Woolens are working over, re-combining; the maker of Wash Goods is creating.

Yard wide Light Percale, new dainty styles, small figures, checks and plaids, the best quality for 8c yard.

Sea Island Dimity, in every conceivable style of this season's printing: Stripes, all-over figures, polka dots and fleur-de-lis; patterns others would ask 17c. Our price 12½c.
